EXPERIENCES & ATTRACTIONS

Auferheide Scenic Byway
Dedicated to the memory of a lifelong champion of the Willamette National Forest, Robert Auferheide, this 70-mile stretch is part of the 220-mile West Cascades Scenic Byway and features old-growth trees, waterfalls, hot springs and wildflowers. Not maintained for snow and ice.

Willamette Fish Hatchery
A visit to the Willamette Fish Hatchery is fun for the whole family. Feed the fish, walk the interpretive trail, play mini-golf, visit the natural history museum, see wood-carving artworks, learn about the raising and breeding of trout, Chinook salmon and steelhead. Free-fishing-day weekend in June. Open year round.

McCredie Hot Springs
Clothing optional at these undeveloped geothermal springs with temps from 98-113°F. Located between milepost 46-47, near Blue Pool Campground off Hwy 58.

Oakridge Museum
Open Saturday from 1-4 p.m. (and by appointment (541) 782-2402), the Oakridge Museum is a treasure trove of community artifacts, early technologies, social and political history, and rare, one-of-a-kind displays.

Office Covered Bridge
This 180 feet span is the longest covered bridge in Oregon and the only one with a secondary pedestrian lane. Located at the junction of Westfir and Westoak roads in Westfir, it is also the location of many trailheads along the North Fork of the Willamette River and the start of the Auferheide.

Biking
You probably know that Oakridge is the Mountain Bike Capital of the Northwest, but did you know many scenic paved roads are great for touring? Try Diamond Drive, the Auferheide Scenic Byway, Salmon Creek Road or the more challenging Brice Canyon/Larison Rock Road from Cottage Grove.

Salt Creek Falls
Oregon’s second highest waterfall tumbles 286 feet in a 60 foot wide swath, just 20 minutes from Oakridge. A paved, wheelchair-accessible path from the parking area makes getting to the falls easy for everyone. An unpaved trail leads to the bottom of the falls for a different perspective. A parking permit ($5), an Interagency Pass or Northwest Forest Pass is required.

Willamette Pass
While perhaps not as well-known as some of Oregon’s ski resorts, Willamette Pass offers downhill skiers and snowboarders 555 acres of terrain with a vertical drop of 1,563 feet. Skiers in the know love Willamette Pass for its short lift lines and easy proximity to Oakridge. You can ski during the day, or under the stars—or both, if your legs are up for it! There are 12 miles of cross-country trails too, and tubing on weekends. Check willamettepass.com for the latest snow conditions.

Uptown Business District
Businesses in the core of Oakridge have transformed the town’s main street into a vibrant and active shopping area. A new hostel and bakery have opened alongside a brew pub, dress shop, therapeutic massage studio and much more.

Zero Clearance Theater
This Oakridge-based community theater company utilizes only local performers and stages both classic and original works. Area high school students often participate in productions, adding a youthful vitality. Local artists create sets, props and costumes. Recent productions include The Mousetrap and The Book of Murder.

Warrior Fitness Trail (C-4)

This popular trail is the most family-friendly one in the area.

The main trailhead is only a ¼ mile outside the city of Oakridge. Leaving Oakridge heading east, turn left at the stop light onto Hwy 58. Head over the railroad overpass, take a right at the bottom of the hill and drive through Uptown Oakridge. After approximately 1½ miles you will come to Fish Hatchery Road, turn right over the railroad tracks and then left into the gravel lot. Trail starts there.

The trail has many other access points, including Greenwaters Park via the levy trail, or park at our amazing Willamette Fish Hatchery and walk or ride the trail and return for a picnic.

Mostly flat, the trail follows the north side of Salmon Creek to Salmon Creek Falls, a 12-mile loop from town. Don’t forget to stop at the Salmon Creek Gorge Bridge for a beautiful view.

Perfect for a beginning rider or a family outing.

Oregon Swallowtail butterflies dart about in late spring/early summer. Please note, bikes are not allowed on this trail.

Salmon Creek (C-4)

This popular technical trail runs 4½ miles along the south side of Salmon Creek. There’s some root jumping here and several short steep climbs, and great views of the creek. The main trailhead is just ½ mile outside of Oakridge. Leaving town, turn left at the stoplight on Hwy 58. Head over the railroad overpass, take a right at the bottom of the hill and drive ½ mile. Make a right turn on Fish Hatchery Road and continue ¼ mile to the Willamette Fish Hatchery. Hike or ride to the back of the hatchery and follow the gravel road to where it dead ends at the trailhead. (The gate may be closed; just hike or ride around it.) NOTE: There’s another much easier trail on the north side of the Creek—Warrior Fitness Trail. This is recommended for less experienced riders.

The Buckhead Nature Trail (A-3)

This half-mile paved loop trail is accessed from a small parking lot with restroom facilities located on the North Shore Road about 1½ miles northwest of Westfir. The trail is wheelchair-accessible and is equipped with interpretive signs and several benches. The trail loops through an open stand of mature Douglas-fir, big leaf maple and Oregon ash trees. Views of wildlife that populates the Middle Fork of the Willamette River can also be enjoyed.

TRAIL DIFFICULTY RATINGS

- EASY: Short trips or mostly level terrain or both.
- MODERATE: Longer trips, rougher terrain and some climbing.
- DIFFICULT: Prolonged steep climbing or are longer and more remote. Previous experience helpful.
- TECHNICAL: Many rocks and roots to maneuver around.
- EXTREME: No trail or difficult terrain with climbing. Previous experience important.
- ADJACENT TO RIVERS AND LAKES
- ELEVATION
- ACCESSIBLE

A FRIENDLY ADVISORY: This booklet is intended to be a guide only. Trail conditions and skill levels vary. Please use caution and appropriate equipment when enjoying the trails described in this booklet. When biking, please obey International Mountain Biking Association guidelines. Photo above: Riders enjoy the rain forest atmosphere on the Salmon Creek Trail.
Walld Lake Trail (H-5)
Use a state highway map to get to the turn off for Walld Lake. Once on Walld Lake Road either drive to Shadow Bay or North Bay campgrounds. The trail starts out of these campgrounds.

Set along the shores of this huge alpine lake, this trail affords backpackers with an opportunity to enjoy unspoiled natural beauty. The lake is one of the purest in the world. Please be aware that mosquitoes can be pervasive during spring and summer. Over 150 miles of trail can be explored from here. However, some of these trails are in designated wilderness areas and are not open to bikes. Many lead to smaller alpine lakes, cascading streams, volcanic peak summits, and conifer groves. Swimming is also very popular in the clear, cold water. Check snow conditions November through July.

Middle Fork of the Willamette Trail (C-11)
This trail has many starting points. Purchase a more detailed area map or hire a shuttle/guide service.

This trail is technically difficult the higher you go and moderately strenuous, and for bikers consists primarily of singletrack. The trail follows the river, as well as the historic Oregon Central Military Wagon Road. If you shuttle to the top, your ride begins at over 5,000 feet and ends under 1,500 feet elevation. The ride just keeps going and going—mile after mile. This is a favorite epic ride. It has many starting points that allow for a 5-40+ mile ride.

The top of the Middle Fork Trail is the gateway to a great trail system that includes Indigo and June Lakes, Sawtooth, Cowhorn and other loops as you head southeast. Hikers will find this trail winds through stands of mixed conifer, cottonwood, and big leaf maple, giving the visitor diverse views of changing ecosystems. Many trailheads offer opportunities for shorter trips and several of the easily accessible riverside areas receive high use. Ample opportunities exist to view wildlife, flowers, and portions of the Oregon Central Military Wagon Road. Several sections of the trail are flat and can provide a scenic walk for even the youngest family member. Bring a fishing pole, a picnic and water, and make it a daylong adventure!

Alpine Trail (B-2)
This trail is 16 miles long and tops out at approximately 4,800 feet elevation. Alpine Ridge separates the North Fork watershed from the Winberry and Fall Creek watershed to the west.

The trail traverses lush mature and old growth stands of Douglas-fir, managed plantations, and beautiful rocky meadows full of wildflowers. One of the area’s most popular trails, it affords many vistas of the surrounding ridges fading off to the horizon. The local snowcapped Diamond Peak as well as the more distant Three Sisters can occasionally be seen.

Alpine Trail connects to the Tire Mountain Trail, which in turn connects to the Clover Patch Trail, providing for an ambitious day hike loop opportunity. Mountain bikers will find the trail is smooth and fast, with breathtaking panoramic views. Once you hit the trail there are a couple of 3-mile climbs in the first 7 miles, some minor technical parts, but the last 7 miles are mostly downhill.

Bunchgrass Trail (E-5)
This trail is very hard to find and we suggest if you plan to ride this on your own you stop by the Willamette Mountain Mercantile for a map and advice or you can contact Oregon Adventures (541) 968-5397 for a shuttle and/or guide.

Absolutely the toughest trail for mountain bikers. Technical, no water, bear grass meadows and alpine views as you ride through burns of past forest fires. Hikers will also find this trail to be difficult. If you’re the adventurous sort, you can hike technical miles and eventually make a steep descent to Black Meadows.

Please use caution in hiking or biking this rugged and remote trail.

Camp Oakridge

Because the communities of Oakridge and Westfir are surrounded by public lands, there are many camping opportunities available only a short drive away. Five developed campgrounds rest within a 30 minute drive of town, all on paved roads. Nineteen other sites exist with the nearby Middle Fork Ranger District of the Willamette National Forest.

These sites cost between $5 to $18 a night, depending on available amenities. If you’ve grown accustomed to crowded campgrounds, you’ll be pleasantly surprised by the peaceful solitude you’ll encounter at these campgrounds through much of the year.

If you’re seeking even more solitude, you might consider the “dispersed camping” opportunities available in the greater Oakridge/Westfir region. Dispersed camping is the term used for camping anywhere in the National Forest outside of a designated campground, and is generally allowed anywhere except within 100 feet of a lake, trail, or stream or where posted as closed. Dispersed camping is free, but please remember to practice Leave No Trace camping.

Black Canyon Campground (A-3)

Black Canyon is situated in a mixed conifer and broadleaf old-growth forest with many sites along the Middle Fork Willamette River. It has an interpretive trail that meanders through the campground and also has a boat launch, which in addition to the Middle Fork River, accesses Lookout Point Reservoir in the summer. This campground is right off Hwy 58, to the west of Westfir.

Kiahanie Campground (E-1)

Located 20 miles northeast of Westfir along the North Fork of the Middle Fork Willamette River, Kiahanie offers campers a remote experience in sites nestled among towering Douglas-firs. Fly anglers are drawn here to ply the river’s waters for native rainbow and cutthroat trout. Sites here offer water, vault toilets, fire rings and garbage containers. Kiahanie can be accessed from Forest Service Road 19, part of the McKenzie Pass-Santiam Pass Scenic Byway.

Salmon Creek Falls Campground (C-4)

This campground is located in a beautiful, lush, old growth forest right along Salmon Creek, located six miles east of downtown Oakridge on Forest Service Road 24. The rocky gorge-like area creates two small beautiful waterfalls and several deep pools which reflect the clear blue-green waters. Springtime brings a full range of wildflowers along the rocky banks as well as in the woods and meadows. Wild thimbleberries and hazelnuts abound in the summer. In years past, Salmon Creek supplied water for the City of Oakridge. The remains of some old wooden, wire-wrapped water pipes can still be seen. Today, the area is a favorite recreation spot for local residents as well as some more distant travelers. This campsite offers vault toilets, water, garbage receptacles and fire rings.

Information on all the sites is available at fs.usda.gov/willamette.

FISHING

Fly fishing along the Middle Fork Willamette River.

Fish Oakridge

Greater Oakridge offers anglers a multitude of opportunities. If you enjoy lake fishing, wet a line in one of four nearby reservoirs for crappie, largemouth bass or trout. In the late spring, steelhead and spring Chinook salmon arrive in good numbers in the Middle Fork of the Willamette River. These feisty fish, fresh from the sea, pack a powerful fight; hatchery fish also provide a centerpiece for a memorable barbecue. The Middle Fork is also one of western Oregon’s premiere trout fisheries. Fly anglers eager to “match the hatch” will find primarily wild fish—both cutthroat and rainbows—in the stretch between Lookout Point Reservoir and Hills Creek Reservoir. (Catch and Release only, please!) Above Hills Creek, the river is regularly stocked with trout, and is a great place to introduce new anglers to stream fishing...and to land the makings for a nice camp breakfast.

A WINTER WONDERLAND

If your heart warms as the temperature gets cold, you’ll appreciate the many winter sports opportunities the Oakridge and Westfir region has to offer. Skiers and snowboarders enjoy the short lines and fluffy powder at Willamette Pass, less than 30 miles from Oakridge. There are also up to 12 miles of groomed and tracked cross country trails at Willamette Pass for Nordic aficionados, plus tubing for those who enjoy their thrills sitting down. (On that note—snowmobilers can find miles of great terrain at the nearby Hoodoo’s Crescent Lake Resort. A short ride (less than 30 miles) to the mountain, fewer people and reasonably priced accommodations only sweeten the deal.) The Christmas season is a special time for many to visit the Oakridge area. A number of special events commemorate the Yuletide, including a Christmas tree lighting in uptown Oakridge and the lighting of Westfir’s Office Bridge—the longest covered bridge in Oregon.

WESTFIR

Nestled along the lower portions of the narrow North Fork River valley just above its confluence with the Middle Fork of the Willamette River, Westfir is located about one mile east of State Highway 58 and is a four-mile drive from Oakridge.

The Office Covered Bridge is the longest in Oregon at 180 feet, and the only covered bridge that has a separate covered pedestrian walkway. The bridge connects the city and Aufderheide Drive to the Westfir Portal—a full service rest area for the Scenic Byway and a trailhead to several nearby trails.

OAKRIDGE

Those who have discovered Oakridge know they have found paradise. Nestled in a valley surrounded by lakes, rivers and the Willamette National Forest, the city offers both creature comforts and natural wonders—the best of both worlds! Head northwest for easy access to Eugene and Springfield; head southeast and enjoy the winter sports of the Willamette Pass area. Everywhere around you you’ll find hiking, biking, boating, birding, hunting, fishing and just about any other form of outdoor recreation you choose.

Above the Willamette Valley’s notorious fog but below the snow line, the city boasts some of the best weather in Oregon. It is said that one sees the sun nearly every day in Oakridge.
