Membership in the Chamber of Commerce says you want your business to succeed and you want your local economy to grow. Actively showcasing Oakridge and Westfir through events and a modern dynamic web presence, the Oakridge/Westfir Chamber of Commerce connects businesses, identifies marketing opportunities, participates in regional strategies for rural business development and provides your business with a broader and stronger outreach to your potential customers. Chamber membership says to your customers you use good business practices, you are involved in Oakridge and Westfir, you care about what they think and you are reputable. And a strong Chamber can be a deciding factor in drawing new business to our area. Rural business communities thrive when they work cooperatively with a strong message.
